

MEET US FACE TO FACE
WE WILL TREAT YOU RIGHT.

This is the shoe for tender feet.

They perfectly fit.
They look so neat.

Before you buy see them.

BEATTY & LONG

Quick Sales and Small Profit Shoes.

STERLING PIANOS

Has it ever occurred to you what the name

STERLING INSURES

First of all—great durability. Then—all the remarkable qualities of tone and action achieved after nearly fifty years of intelligent endeavor to produce the most

ARTISTIC PIANOS

THE WORLD AFFORD

We have a magnificent stock of Sterling Pianos now in. If you have not heard their marvelous tone there is a treat in store for you.

We cordially invite you to come in whether you are a buyer or only wish to satisfy your artistic desire.

G.W. BAKER.

214 WEST CENTER STREET.

EATABLES EATABLES

you are looking for. Oh yes come in and leave your order we will please you, if not return them with a smile for we will be pleased to exchange them if they are not right, we have new canned peas, corn and tomatoes also a good line of coffee and teas also vegetables that are in season.

L. C. VANATTA

South Main Street.

See next Saturday's paper for what to try and where to buy.

Marion Preserving Co.

CLOTHING ON CREDIT

This is the store where your friends trade. Come here for what you want if you want good clothing for Men, Women or Children.

Select what you want and tell the salesman or saleslady you wish to open an account.

You will find it the nicest way to trade because it is the easiest way to pay.

No better clothing can be found anywhere. No other store make it as profitable to their customers or so convenient.

Come in Now

YOUR CREDIT IS GOOD

MARION CLOTHING & CLOAK CO.

A. C. Bachman Mgr.

HALLOWEEN IS OBSERVED IN SOCIAL AND CLUB CIRCLES

Marion Lodge of Elks Entertains With Reception and Ball—D. A. E. Fraternity Holds Dance at Tally Wag Hall—Halloween Social—Mrs. Charles Neally Surprised by Members of A. I. U.—Misses Rogers and Meredith Entertain With "Dress up" Party—Embroidery Club Meets With Mrs. George B. Christian Jr. as Hostess.

One of the most auspicious social events of the Halloween season was the reception and ball given under the auspices of Marion Lodge of Elks at the Huber hall last evening. The occasion marked the opening event of the Elks' annual social festivities.

The guests, numbering about forty couples assembled at 8 o'clock and an informal reception continued until 8:30 after which dancing was enjoyed until the wee small hours put in their appearance. During an intermission in dances an elegant luncheon was served. Older punch was on tap all evening, being served from a keg which was artistically mounted on jack-o-lanterns and corn husks.

The halls had been decorated for the occasion, corn, pumpkins, fodder and various other fall products were used in profusion with very pretty effects. The orchestra which was composed of five pieces and led by Miss Nina Felkner, was screened behind a bank composed of fodder and pumpkin vines.

The great success of the affair can really be credited to the social committee in charge which was composed of Messrs. Albert Howe, Charles Mason and Frank Stoll.

The guest list follows: Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Krause, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Shaw, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wideman, Mr. and Mrs. C. R. McMurray, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Olds, Mr. and Mrs. B. G. Young, Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Kleinmaler, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Kearse, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Spencer, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Allen, Mr. and Mrs. Harry W. Haberman, Mr. and Mrs. John Stark, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cheney, Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Hess, Mr. and Mrs. William Sanders, Mr. and Mrs. John Key, Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Kleinmaler, Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Staiger, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gompf, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Walters, Mr. and Mrs. J.

H. Mason, Mr. and Mrs. Marion Stoll, Misses Cleo Sweney, Florence Foster, Rosetta Knapp, Vada Field, Meta Marx, Glen Mouser, Fleta Thomas, Otto Carbaugh, Selma Marx, Bertha Probst, Alice Bloom, Mayme Enlish, Minnie Rayl, Messrs. George W. Carter, Ernest L. Owen, Albert Howe, Harry Elliott, Charles W. Mason, I. I. Marx, G. H. Foster, J. M. Brigel, Carl H. Balt, Fred B. Scherff, Fred Stengel, Frank V. Stoll, Frank Stanley, C. L. Long, Charles Mouser, A. J. Perry.

Those from out of town Dr. and Mrs. J. J. Martin of Bucyrus; Miss Henrietta Swegman of Pomeroy and Mr. M. J. Davis of Rochester, New York.

A pleasant surprise in honor of the Halloween season was perpetrated on Mrs. Charles Neally, of Silver street by a company of forty ladies and gentlemen, members of the American Insurance Union. The evening was pleasantly passed with music, games and other diversions and light refreshments were served.

The guests were: Misses Irma Sontag, Emma Kerwecker, Emma Hultz, Ollie Cook, Rosella Kerwecker, Leona Messenger, Goldie Rentchler, Ima Scofield, Bessie Earl, Grace and Mary Horseman, Ruby Staley, Bertha Bender, Mr. Louis Scherff, Mr. and Mrs. Ferguson, Mrs. Hultz, Mr. and Mrs. O'Connor, Mr. and Mrs. Bentz, Mr. and Mrs. Keeler, Mr. and Mrs. George Rayl, Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Carter, Mr. and Mrs. John Schweinfurth, Mrs. Carder, Mr. and Mrs. Merle Wise, Mr. and Mrs. John Hocter, Mr. and Mrs. Horseman, Mrs. Staley, Earl Bolander, William Sabiens, Elton Earl, George Neely, Harry Sturmer, George Hultz, Charles McNeal, and Ralph Horseman.

The Companion of Foresters entertained the Foresters and their friends at a Halloween social in the lodge halls last evening. The halls were very nicely decorated in fodder and pumpkins and presented a very inviting scene. About 150 people assembled and all greatly enjoyed the excellent entertainment which was afforded.

An informal program of music and recitations was rendered, after which refreshments consisting of gingerbread, pumpkin pie and coffee were served. Home made candy and various other delicacies were offered for sale during the evening. A general good social time was enjoyed by those present.

Misses Edna Rogers and Mattie Meredith delightfully entertained a number of young people at a "dress up" party at the home of Miss Rogers on Windsor street, Thursday evening. The twenty-four couples entertained were received at the door by Miss Marie Lucas and Master Paul Jones.

Fortune telling was a feature of the evening and it proved a source of much entertainment. The Rogers' home was tastefully decorated for the occasion with various Halloween decorations.

A two course supper was served by the hostesses.

The Embroidery Club was delightfully entertained yesterday afternoon by Mrs. George B. Christian, Jr. at her home on Mt. Vernon avenue, the affair being a five o'clock tea. The home was tastefully decorated in observance of the season of Halloween. An excellent collation was served by the hostess.

The club will meet two weeks from tomorrow with Miss Alice Crow, of West Church street.

Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Cunningham of Lafayette street, entertained a small company of friends last evening with a six o'clock dinner. The home was nicely decorated with foliage, pumpkins and flowers.

Covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. George B. Knapp, Mr. and Mrs. H. McClain, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Martin and daughter Cornelia, Mr. and Mrs. DeLoz DeWolfe and son and Mrs. Earl R. Wilson.

The Y. M. C. A. Literary club fittingly observed Halloween last night by holding a social in its club room in the Association building. Following an elaborate dinner which was served at 8 o'clock, a business session was held. The club re-organized for the winter season by electing the following officers:

Benjamin Grilla, President; Rodney Hume, vice president; Percy Spencer, secretary; Donald Bell, treasurer; George Kleinmaler, business man. The club determined to meet for literary discussion every two weeks and to hold special business meetings on the second Tuesday evening of each month.

About thirty-five couples attended the Halloween dance given by the D. A. E. fraternity in the Tally Wag hall last night. The hall was nicely decorated with foliage, crepe paper, jack-o-lanterns, and other things appropriate to the season. Dowler's orchestra rendered an excellent program of music throughout the evening.

Try ADMIRAL COFFEE.

SURPRISE PARTY

Given in Honor of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Klinefelter.

A company of about fifty members of the Sunday school of Canaan Evangelical church, six miles south of the city, perpetrated a very pleasant surprise on Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Klinefelter at their home on the Richland pike Thursday evening. The people assembled unexpectedly at their home about 8 o'clock and reminded them that it was Halloween.

The evening was pleasantly passed at games and various social diversions. The Sunday school orchestra was present and rendered a number of selections. An elegant luncheon was served.

Lodge Notes

A special meeting of Marion Commandery, Knights Templar was held in the Masonic temple last evening for the purpose of conferring the Temple and Malta degrees upon two candidates from Delaware. The Delaware delegation with its two candidates arrived in the city on a special interurban car shortly before 7 o'clock and returned on the regular 10 o'clock car. At the conclusion of the degree work a smoker and social hour was enjoyed.

Members of all the local lodges of Odd Fellows went to Springfield Thursday to attend the dedication of the new extension of the Odd Fellows' Home. Grand master John L. Sullivan of St. Marys was the principal speaker and Philip B. Houk also gave an address. The local delegations were royally entertained. Over fifty Marion lodge members left early Thursday morning and after enjoying the exercises of the day returned home late last evening.

The Druids met Thursday evening and after the usual business of the lodge was considered the members proceeded to elect officers. The installation of the newly elected officers will take place at the next regular meeting.

The following officers were elected: Charles Riger, regent; William Kern, vice regent; Henry Bauer, inner guard; Henry Ebert, guide.

The Uniformed Rank, Knights of Pythias, met last night and engaged in drill during the early part of the evening after which a social and smoker were enjoyed.

Try ADMIRAL COFFEE.

HALLOWEEN PARTIES GIVEN AT PROSPECT

Embroidery Club Meets at the Curtis Residence.

Enjoyable "Dress Up" Party Held at Home of Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Drake.

Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Drake delightfully entertained a company of about forty friends at a "dress up" party at their home in Prospect Thursday evening. The guests were masked and costumes of clever variety and designs and a prize was awarded the person wearing the most complete mask. The evening was spent at music, games and various sports characteristic of Halloween. A delicious luncheon was a concluding feature.

Miss Cleo Roberts nicely entertained a small company of friends at her home on North Prospect street, Prospect, Thursday evening. The guests assembled at 8 o'clock and the hours until 11 were passed at music and various diversions. Elegant refreshments were served.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Curtis of two miles south of Prospect entertained the members of the Prospect Embroidery club together with the member's husbands, Thursday evening. The company of guests numbered about forty and a very delightful social function resulted. Games, music and elegant refreshments were notable features.

Copyright 1907
The House of Kuppenheimer
Chicago

SUITS AND OVERCOATS

With style, character and quality. Clothes made by the House of Kuppenheimer. Clothes that will appeal to you because of their lasting style and characteristics.

COME TOMORROW

SUITS $10 to $25

OVERCOATS $5 to $35

HUGHS & CLEARY

MAIN AND CENTER STREETS

SCHULTZ HOME WAS THE SCENE

Of a Very Delightful Halloween Party.

Forty Guests Entertained by Misses Hazel Schultz and Marie Welch of Morral.

Misses Hazel Schultz and Marie Welch of Morral entertained about forty of their friends at the home of the former last Wednesday evening at a Halloween party.

The home was appropriately decorated with crepe paper and Jack-o-lanterns, the color scheme being black and old gold, the class colors of the two hostesses.

The guests were shown to the second landing by a ghost where they were confronted by another ghost who pointed to them their destination. After greeting the hostesses the guests were amused by the usual Halloween diversions.

One of the principal features was a guessing contest, the prize being won by Miss Elma Brooks. Another pleasing feature was a threading contest, this prize being rewarded to Ray Barnhouse. Each guest was given a slip of paper with a part of a familiar song written on it and by matching these, partners were secured for supper. The hostess led the way to the dining room where a two course luncheon was served.

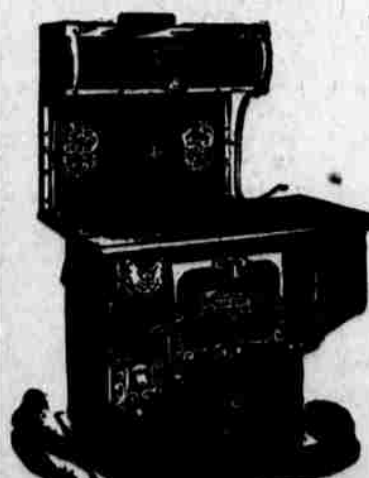

Those present were: Misses Vera Beck, Dale Harriman, Audrey Bolander, Bertha Kern, Cleo Walter, house, Edna Riley, Ethel Jolley, Roma Welsh, Hattie Moore, Marie Stevens, Pearl Crim, Arah Lama, Messrs. Bert Pason, Bert Crim, Carl Ken, Edgar Moore, Alonzo Owings, Edward Giles, Alexander Giles, Emmet Smith, Thomas Lochren, Ray Barnhouse, Harold Schultz, and Dwight Stouffer of Morral; Elma Brooks, Mabel Rowe, Oda Brooks, Gladys Mapes, Miss Shaw, Harold Brooks, Ray Reamsnyder, Ralph Mapes of Kirkpatrick and Kathryn Sweeney, Floyd Welsh, and Pearl Rowe of Marion.

Apples on Track.

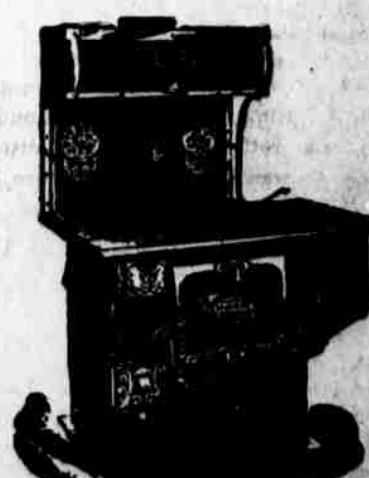

Messrs. William & Everett have another car of Pennsylvania apples on the side track of the Pennsylvania railroad. Call at the car and see them. 11-1-2t

Try ADMIRAL COFFEE.

$27.50

$27.50

The greatest steel range bargain ever offered in Marion.

A M M A N N ' S

Always Remember the Full Name
Exclusive Promo Quinine
Cures a Cold in One Day. 25c in 3 Days
E. H. Brown on every box 25c